Responsible for the development of the Air National Guard's Combat Air Forces (CAF) portion of the Program Objective Memorandum (POM) and President's Budget (PB). Military training and expertise in developing CAF force structure and funding options supporting the full spectrum of operational requirements for AF and ANG. Serve as interface between ANG and Headquarters Air Force (HAF) programming community and CAF community for validating operational requirements for like-airframe modifications to support programmed initiatives.

Operational fighter or bomber experience is desired. Other highly desired qualifications include: Extensive background in, knowledge of and experience with CAF. Familiarity and/or experience with the Planning, Programming, Budgeting, and Execution (PPBE) system, as Program Element (PE) or acquisition program manager, highly desired. Other desired experience include: prior experience at AF/A8PC; Service, joint and/or inter-agency planning. Should have a working knowledge of the functions and organization structure of the NGB, USAF, MAJCOMs, NAFs, TAGs, NG-JS and ANG.

As a CAF programmer, member will work directly with CAF Program Element Monitors (PEM) and Functional Area Monitors (FAM) to guide and direct ANG's PPBE efforts as they relate to CAF operations. Coordinates with HQ USAF, MAJCOM, JFHQ-States and ANG field units to determine program requirements. Member will coordinate with and represent ANG CAF resource equities with numerous commands including Air Force Global Strike Command and Air Combat Command (ACC).

Incumbent will develop, present, and coordinate CAF PPBE issues for the ANG and is responsible for ANG CAF programming guidance, analysis, and resource recommendations to the Director, ANG, through the CAF Panel. Responsible to track CAF related issues throughout the ANG Corporate Process and AF Corporate Structure and incorporates recommendations. Member will monitor execution of authorized funding.

Member of the Air National Guard CAF Panel. Works closely with other members of the Plans and Programs Directorate and interacts daily with the integration branch to define, integrate and support ANG requirements with other ANG Directorates and commands. Develops ANG POM for assigned PE inputs and to support/defend ANG interests at unit, MAJCOM and HQ USAF levels.

Should have the ability to analyze logically and objectively, apply sound judgment in assessing possible solutions, and adjust to changing priorities; and be able to implement these traits in daily operations. Strong leadership, management and effective communication skills required.
